

Essential Question:

Pick one of the 5 bullet points below. Why is it important?

Questions:

Notes:

Purpose of Argumentative Essay:

- An argument follows when 2 groups disagree about something.
- An argumentative essay is one that attempts to change the reader's mind; to convince the reader to agree with the point of view of the writer.
- Argumentative essays attempt to be highly persuasive and logical.
- Throughout your essay, assume that the reader disagrees with you, but remember your reader is no less intelligent than you.
- Write objectively, logically, and respectfully.

Summary: